Milton Keynes based storage specialist, LINPAC Storage Systems, has recently completed an archive storage facility for Supporta Professional Services at Heyford Park in Oxfordshire. The 9,200 sq.ft. unit is not the usual storage facility. Upper Heyford was established as a Royal Fighter Command aerodrome in 1915.

Each picking lane has two picking locations, one on each side of an integral rack supported conveyor. The ground level of the picking towers is used for bulk storage. "We were impressed by the high level of service that Linpac Storage Systems gave us," says Sanchez.

The national transmission and distribution system operators in North Macedonia wouldn't be allowed to build battery stations for commercial purposes unless no other entity is interested. Companies from Croatia and Italy have lately shown interest in building standalone battery energy storage systems (BESS), Bloomberg Adria reported.
