

Technic Electrical Engineering (Thailand) Co., Ltd. is based in Bangkok and expert in Energy Saving Solutions, Air Purification systems & Sustainability consultant. We work on projects for embassies, commercial buildings, industrial factories, hotels, schools, Hospitals etc.

Associate Company Status is available for companies without registration in Thailand. Their application should be accompanied by registration where the company is headquartered. Associate Companies receive a listing in our Member Directory and the right to nominate 2 representatives.

Energy Thai Trading Hub Company Limited (ETTH) is an integrated energy, environmental, and sustainable development consulting firm operated by Thais who have educational and related professional experience aboard and collaborated with oversea experts as a working team.

YCP, a top consulting firm, leverages global expertise to navigate Thailand's market barriers, enhancing green energy adoption. As a trusted partner in sustainable energy, YCP is committed to empowering clients with innovative strategies for success in Thailand.

GGE is the power plant consulting firm with office based in Bangkok, Thailand. The company was set up by the former Director of the global power plant consulting firm who has an experience with energy sectors for more than 25 years and his colleague.

We drive and turn creativity and energy into everyday sustainable solutions. Based in Thailand, we advise public and private sectors in South-East Asia to be more efficient & effective, to adapt to changes and to identify new opportunities in the energy and climate markets.

ERM has been in Thailand for since 1997. We have mature operations with in depth knowledge of regulations, regulators and application. Our focus sectors include oil and gas, petrochemical and refinery, mining, construction material ...

TEAM GROUP brings decades of engineering experience for a full range of energy innovations, either for traditional energy production or for sourcing renewable or alternative energy, especially solar energy, to help clients reduce operational cost and address the energy crisis on a sustainable basis.

Energy Prime is managed by a professional team who has experiences & expert in many fields and apply proven energy efficiency technologies. ENPRIME is determined to become Thailand's integrated consulting service leader particularly in engineering and energy fields.

ERM has been in Thailand for since 1997. We have mature operations with in depth knowledge of regulations, regulators and application. Our focus sectors include oil and gas, petrochemical and refinery, mining, construction material and waste management sectors.

Web: <https://mikrotik.biz.pl>

