How do I choose a solar company for my home?

When beginning your home solar project, you might start by searching "Solar Providers Near Me." Then, you'll be presented with dozens of different solar companies to choose from. All of these installers will vary in size, equipment offerings, and reputability, and it can take months to line up multiple quotes. But there's a better way.

How do I find a good solar company?

Once you've narrowed your search down to a handful of certified and licensed solar companies, you'll want to look at their online reviews (like this!). We've found that Google, Yelp, and the Better Business Bureau are the best resources for reviews of solar providers.

Should I buy a solar system in northern or southern areas?

Typically, northern areas will benefit more from larger systems with plenty of battery storage. These systems tend to cost more than those in southern regions that receive more direct sunlight and are less likely to experience several cloudy, low-production days in a row.

The best way to find solar providers near you is the guided experience on the solar marketplace. On solar , we weed out the riff-raff to bring you multiple quotes from our network of vetted and certified solar installers.
